

Approved For Release 2001/04/12 : CIA-RDP80-00810A000300480001-5

4 REPORT NO

CD NO

NO. OF PAGES 2

NO. OF ENCLS.
(LISTED BELOW)

SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION

25X1X

1. The Polish Army House (Dom Wojska Polskiego) (D.W.) is located on the Sucha at Koszykowa Street in Warsaw. It is part of the Ministry of National Defense compound. The D.W. is a political and cultural organization established to entertain and, through entertainment, educate politically units of the Polish Army.
2. The following are known D.W. personnel:
 - a) Director: Lt. Col. (fnu) Hubert, about 45, heavily built, Jewish.
 - b) Deputy Director: Lt. Col. (fnu) Lastowski, about 45. Speaks ~~poor~~ Polish with a Russian accent.
 - c) Director, Political Propaganda Section: Major (fnu) Lisiewicz, about 40, a Polish national. Lisiewicz is head of the D.W. liaison section to the Main Administration for Political Education (Zarząd Główny Wychowania Politycznego) in addition to his other duties.
 - d) Administrative Officer: Capt. (fnu) Duda, about 34, Polish, an idealistic Communist, heavy drinker. He hires theatrical groups, orchestras, halls, buys supplies, administers the motor pool, hires buses and makes transportation arrangements for entertainment troupes.
 - e) Administrative Assistant: 2nd Lt. Wojciechowski, Polish, about 35; received promotion to his current rank in 1951.
3. D.W. personnel wear green military uniforms, insignia with a small harp and the inscription "D.W.". All artists, actors and actresses, ballet personnel and the like wear the uniform when not performing. Actors and artists of military age are allowed to serve their term of duty in the D.W.
4. The D.W. administers Army theaters and clubs, organizes cultural events such as lectures, plays, etc., and organizes theater, singing and ballet tours for Army field units.

Approved For Release 2001/04/12 : CIA-RDP80-00810A000300480001-5

STATE	NAVY	NSRB	DISTRIBUTION
ARMY	AIR	FBI

469

CONFIDENTIAL

25X1A

-2-

5. There are the following subordinate groups to DWP:

- a) Stage group (Zespół Estradowy), Warsaw, Koszykowa Street.
- b) Choir of Arian (Chór Ariana), also on Koszykowa Street.
- c) Theater Post (Teatr "Placówka"), Warsaw, Królewska Street 13.

These three are administratively subordinate to the DWP; they do not have a constant reserve of actors on call. Instead, any actor may be assigned to any group or to an outside organization.

- d) Literary section (Dział Literacki): The press, editing, composing and film section of DWP. Personnel in the section cannot be transferred.
- e) Children's group (Dziecięcy Zespół): Although subordinate to DWP, it has an independent budget not included in the allocation for the Ministry of Culture and Art.

6. The following are known personnel of the groups subordinate to the DWP:

- a) (Fnu) Michotek, about 36, Polish, intelligent, heavy drinker; composer, singer and actor; spent eight years in Russia.
- b) (Fnu) Olearczyk, about 35, director of the stage group, Polish Jew, member of the Association of Polish Youth (Związek Młodzieży Polskiej) (ZMP) and the PZPR; makes about six to eight thousand zloty a month.
- c) Janina Pollakowna, about 32, actress and singer, a Polish Jew; salary of about three thousand zloty per month.
- d) (Fnu) Steciowna, actress and singer.
- e) (Fnu) Wyszomirski, about 60, director of Choir of Adrian, Polish.
- f) Jan Galkowski, about 22, member of the Literary Section, resident of Warsaw-Zoliborz, Potocki Street, heavy drinker.
- g) Tadeusz Urgacz, about 30, member of the Literary Section and literary adviser to the KB.
- h) Robert Stiller, about 25, member of the Literary Section; Polish, lives in Warsaw, Mianowskiego Street 24, reportedly knows eight or nine languages, primarily Far and Middle Eastern.

CONFIDENTIAL